DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 19-27 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claim 19 recites, inter alia, an interconnection mechanism which is configured to electrically connect the first controller of the first circuit with the second controller of the second circuit, wherein the first controller is configured to direct the first converter to provide the first power signal based on the second current indication signal provided by the second controller, and wherein the second controller is configured to direct the second converter to provide the second power signal based on the first current indication signal provided by the first controller.

Claim 22 recites, inter alia, an interconnection mechanism which is configured to electrically connect the first controller of the first circuit with the second controller of the second circuit, wherein the first controller is configured to direct the first converter to provide the first power signal based on the second current indication signal provided by the second controller, and wherein the second controller is configured to direct the second converter to provide the second power signal based on the first current indication signal provided by the first controller.

Claim 25 recites, inter alia, providing a first current indication signal which is proportional to a value of current of the first power signal; providing a second current indication signal which is proportional to a value of current of the second power signal; and directing the first converter to adjust the first power signal based on the second current indication signal provided by the second controller, and directing the second converter to adjust the second power signal based on the first current indication signal provided by the first controller.

Art Unit: 2838

The art of record does not disclose the above limitations, nor would it be obvious to modify the art of record so as to include either of the above limitations.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
